

US Post-election Survey of Prospective International Students

Respondent profile – 1,015 Respondents

Respondent gender

Study status

Study level of interest

Respondent country of origin

How has your perception of the US changed as a result of the 2024 election?

Are you more or less likely to study in the US following the 2024 election?

How would a new travel ban, similar to the 2017 ban on Muslim-majority countries, impact your decision to study in the US?

I would no longer consider studying in the US

13%

I would reconsider my options

40%

It would not impact my decision

47%

